Thanks to You!

LOVERS of FINER FLOWERS

I AM ABLE TO MAKE THIS EXTRAORDINARY OFFER of MAGNIFICENT TALL BEARDED IRIS VARIETIES

TRULY THE PICK of the IRIS WORLD
... AT UNHEARD OF PRICES

When I say that my thanks are due to discriminating flower growers for making this extraordinary offer possible, I mean just that. By demanding the finest varieties of Iris—and backing up that demand by a veritable avalanche of orders, you have made it possible for me to reduce prices to a point that makes it possible for Everyone to grow these magnificent flowers.

I am going to make this the greatest IRIS season in my long history as a horticulturist. I am offering you the same profuse varieties of Tall Bearded Iris that I send to adorn some of the greatest estates in the land where cost is no factor and only quality counts. And remember: each variety is labelled—there are no strangers; each variety is noted as a luxuriant bloomer and every color and tone in the Iris world is included.

AIRY DREAM—42 in. Exquisite soft pink. Beautifully ruffled. A real dream.
ALCINA—36 in. An unusually handsome blue and cream blend. You'll love this one.
AMBASSADEUR—42 in. A superb rich deep blend. Winner of Popularity Contest.
APACHE—24 in. Exquisitely fragrant; unusual flame red.
ANDELIA—32 in. A magnificent "plicata" and one of the most handsome of all Iris, with beautifully ruffled lilac standards and white falls with a feather-stitched edging of rose purple.
AUTUMN KING—30 in. The first fall bloomer. In addition to producing a full crop of early flowers during May, it flowers again in Fall from September until killed by frost. A handsome blue-purple bicolor.
AZULADO—36 in. Very lovely flowers of huge size and "mother-of-pearl" coloring.
BLUE & GOLD—42 in. An unusual and most attractive brilliant rich blue, with amazingly brilliant golden beard.
BRUNO—36 in. A magnificent variety of an indescribable richness of color and texture like the finest velvet. A dark blend with the richness of a Persian rug.
CANDLELIGHT—40 in. A lovely blend of soft pastel colors, with a yellow glow at the center, which gives the effect of soft light coming from within; hence the name. Received the highest rating by the American Iris Society a few years ago among several thousand varieties voted upon.
CLARIDAD—30 in. This is about the purest tone blue Iris I have ever seen and gives a magnificent garden effect.
CONQUISTADOR—40 in. A magnificent soft blue of gigantic size that is especially fine for milder climates and the Pacific Coast.
COPPERSMITH—42 in. One of the finest of our American introductions with rich velvety coppery red flowers of perfect form and heavy substance.
CORONATION—40 in. A fine, large, rich golden yellow. One of the very best in this class.
CRYSORO—24 in. A very early flowering orange yellow. GIVEN HONORABLE MENTION BY THE AMERICAN IRIS SOCIETY.
DAY DREAM—42 in. Fine large flowers in a lovely blend of pinkish tones. One of the group winning the grand prize at Rockefeller Center two years ago.
EDGEWOOD—45 in. Huge flowers in an exquisite shade of bright pink. Sold at $12.00 for a single plant a few years ago.
EUPHONY—36 in. Magnificent beautifully ruffled copper blend. A real gem.

FIREFALL—32 in. Brilliant fiery red. One of the best of this type.
FLORENCE BIGNELL—36 in. A European introduction that sold a few years ago at $25.00 for a single plant. Well-formed flowers, of great substance, in a lovely shade of soft golden yellow, with a conspicuous orange beard.
GAY HUSSAR—30 in. A magnificent early "Variegata". S—rich, brilliant yellow. F—deep, velvety exblood red.
GRANDIOSA—54 in. Huge, rich blue-purple flowers of fine form and good substance, towering shoulder high.
HEARTHSTONE COPPER—30 in. A startling brilliant new introduction, with old-gold and copper standards and fiery-red falls.

WITH EVERY $5.00 ORDER 6 Superb IRIS FREE

With every $5.00 order, I will include FREE one each of these six beautiful Iris making 56 in all, two each with every $10.00 making 112 in all; Ballerine, fragrant, light blue; Chinatown, a bizarre bi-color, orange and copper red; Germaine Perthuis, fragrant, late violet-purple; Quivera, lovely pastel blend; Omaha, large flowered, red-toned variety; Selene, large new snow-white.

HYPNOS—40 in. A fine new American introduction in a most enchanting pastel blend of soft-blue, rose, grey, and yellow.
INDIAN CHIEF—40 in. A gigantic velvety red-toned Iris of fine form. An outstanding recent introduction.
KING TUT—34 in. A brilliant fiery red-toned Iris, but quite unlike Indian Chief. Parent of many of our finest new reds.
L'AIGLON—38 in. A rich bronzy red bicolor. One of our finest Irises.
MIDGARD—30 in. One of our most popular pastel blends in soft pink and chamais.
MONTOUR—30 in. A true dark mineral red.
MORNING GLORY—36 in. A new vivid brilliant rich red purple.

MOONLIGHT—36 in. A sensational early white vivid green-gold at the throat.
MORNING SPLENDOR—36 in. WINNER OF 3 MEDALS. Large fragrant flowers of rich deep maroon.
NUSKU—36 in. A lovely crushed strawberry and soft yellow blend.

[With increasing costs and a much finer collection than offered in the Flower Grower last June at 10c each, I had expected to find it necessary to make a higher price on this collection, but at the last moment, and after giving the matter much serious consideration, I decided to give the readers of Flower Grower the most attractive offer I have ever made.]
